

SPOTLIGHT ON TURKEY

Teacher Outreach Workshop 2012

Learn about a unique opportunity to travel to the cradle of civilization with fellow educators from across the United States

Gain a deeper understanding of political and social matters in Turkey

Explore historical, economic and cultural ties between the U.S. & Turkey

SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 2012

8:30 AM – 3:30 PM at the UNF University Center, Room I088

Open to classroom educators, particularly humanities, art, or literature teachers, and media specialists in a Middle or High School in Duval, St. Johns, Nassau or Clay County. Participants will be eligible to apply for a study tour to Turkey, subsidized by the Turkish Cultural Foundation. Three local teachers will be selected by the World Affairs Council of Jacksonville to participate in the study tour (June 25-July 8.)

This workshop is offered to local educators at no cost. A Mediterranean-style lunch will be provided. Complimentary RSVP by February 27.

World Affairs Councils of America

Sponsored by

Turkish
Cultural Foundation

RSVP to uli@worldaffairsCounciljax.org