

Bringing the World Closer

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Greetings Fellow Council Members:
This season has brought a number of superb speakers to Jacksonville already. From a retired U.S. Ambassador to world-renowned journalists, the Council continues to bring in diverse thought leaders from a wide breadth of backgrounds. This remains true as we look forward to an intriguing lineup in 2019. Our upcoming Global Issues Evenings will examine some of the most pressing issues on the global scene today, including global healthcare and Putin's Russia. As these evening talks shed light on critical global issues, our Global Business Luncheons analyze economic trends in local and global economies. Mark your calendars now, because this season is full of talks you won't want to miss. Through renowned speaker series and influential education outreach, the Council is truly bringing the world closer to Jacksonville. Have a happy holiday season, and I look forward to seeing you in January.

Ways to Give

This holiday season, give the gift that keeps on giving: membership with the World Affairs Council of Jacksonville. You can purchase online or through the Council office, securing a year's worth of programs and engagement for those closest to you.

If you're an online shopper with Amazon, we ask that you keep the Council in mind. When you start shopping at smile.amazon.com, Amazon will donate .5% of your eligible purchases to the Council. Just select World Affairs Council of Jacksonville as your nonprofit of choice when prompted and spread the holiday cheer.

A world of thanks for the many gifts that provide the funding to support our highly acclaimed programs, including the Council's education outreach and speaker series.

EDUCATION

Admiral Jonathan T. Howe Academic WorldQuest

This year's Admiral Jonathan T. Howe Academic WorldQuest saw 50 teams and 200 students representing 23 high schools from across Northeast Florida. "Caravan Bogeyman" from Fletcher High took first place in this year's foreign affairs trivia competition. "A Slice of Moon Jae Pie" and "Let's Get This Doha" of Stanton College Preparatory School took second and third place, respectively. "Little Rocket Men" from The Bolles School was selected as the best team name.

On behalf of the students and their high schools, thank you for making this year's program such a great success. To all of our sponsors, your generosity was on full display!
